According to the crop report, issued by the Agricultural Department at Washington, the percentage of wheat remaining in the hands of the farmers is 20.1% or 111,000,000 bushels; of corn, 38.7% or 954,000,000 bushels; of oats, 38.8% or 347,000,000 bushels.

H. J. Garnett, a former implement dealer at Cynthiana, has been indicted by the Harrison County Grand Jury on two counts charging forgery. Garnett is alleged to have forged his step-mother's name to two promissory notes given to Lexington implement dealers for over $1,200.

The increasing city business of the popular house of M. C. Russell Company has necessitated the doubling up of the transfer department. Mr. J. Barbour Russell was in Fleming county Saturday and purchased of Messrs. J. H. Armstrong & Co. two of the finest mules that money could buy, and hereafter instead of a one-horse concern the transfer wagon will be whirled along by two of the nattiest mules to be found in the state.

MRS. EMILY DOBYNS.

In the death of Mrs. Emily Dobyns, which occurred Saturday at the home of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. W. R. Dobyns, near Proctorville, O., there passed away a most lovely character and one of the oldest natives of this city, being nearly 90 years of age.

She was a daughter of the late John Armstrong, one of the early settlers here and a merchant whose trade extended far and wide in those pioneer days.

Her husband, Colonel R. G. Dobyns, for years Mayor of this city, preceded her to the grave many years ago.

Mrs. Dobyns made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Hal Gray, during the latter's lifetime. After her death, which occurred some years ago, she resided with her son, W. R. Dobyns, and after his death continued to live with her daughter-in-law.

She was a member of the Third Street Methodist Episcopal Church, and was a Christian woman in the broadest sense the word implies. She was loving, gentle, tender and generous to a fault. Having ample means, she was lavish in bestowing charity. What she did in relieving distress no one but herself knew. Her memory will be cherished here by numbers who were beneficiaries of her open purse. To do good and serve God were characteristics of her nature. In life she was loved by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance, and her death will be mourned by the entire community.

The remains will arrive this afternoon on the 3:30 C. and O. Westbound Fast Flyer and be taken direct to the Church.

The funeral will be from the Third Street Methodist Episcopal Church tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, with services by the Pastor, Rev. M. A. Banker, assisted by the Presiding Elder, Rev. F. W. Harrop.

Interment in Maysville Cemetery.

MRS. ELLEN BROWN.

Mrs. Ellen Brown, the venerable wife of Mr. Michael Brown, died at her home in East Fourth street Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock of old age and general debility.

The deceased was born in County Mayo, Ireland, in 1825, and came to this country some fifty-seven years ago, landing in New York City, where she married her husband, and shortly afterwards came to this city, where they have resided ever since.

Besides her aged husband, she leaves a daughter, Mrs. Gas Reynolds of Chicago.

The funeral occurred this morning at 9 o'clock from St. Patrick's Church, with services by Rev. P. M. Jones.

Interment in Washington Cemetery.

William L. Schatzmann Missing From His Home in West Second

Mr. William L. Schatzmann is mysteriously missing this morning from his home in West Second street.

He arose at an early hour, partially dressed himself and left the house, since which time he has not been seen or heard of.

Before leaving the house he took his watch and money from his pockets, taking nothing of any value with him.

It is feared by his family and friends that something has happened him.

Globe Stamps vs. Rumors

It is getting to be a semi-annual affair for some Maysville "Knockers" to start rumors that the Globe Stamp Co. will discontinue giving stamps. To stop these rumors we say once and for all that we have renewed our contract for another year, and any time we wish to discontinue the use of stamps we will give our customers THREE MONTHS NOTICE in order that they will have plenty of time to redeem their books. Remember that we are at all times for our customers first. In the next thirty days we will receive the greatest lot of Premiums ever shown. In addition there will be several more merchants giving out stamps. In about thirty days the Stamp Company will announce a new plan, where you will be able to save more stamps. For every 10c you spend get your stamps. We are willing to give stamps for cash trade. A cash customer should have some advantage over a credit one. Some merchants will tell you that you have to ask more for goods if you give stamps. THAT IS NOT SO. We ask you to

BUT just think of the poor devils that are dying that the autocracy of Russia may survive.

THE writer of those sketches, "A Little Lesson in Patriotism," which appear daily in The Cincinnati Commercial Tribune, speaks of General JOHN FORREST as a distinguished Confederate cavalryman. That's enough to make the bones of old NATHAN BEDFORD rattle in their coffin, and shows the importance of correct writing, especially when it comes to historical matters. At the outbreak of the War, N. B. FORREST kept a slavepen in Memphis, and entering the army he became a Lieutenant-General. He was one of the captors of Fort Pillow, whose fall was followed by a massacre of its colored defenders—so far as I know the only blot on FORREST's otherwise splendid military career. He was an illiterate as well as an unique character, and in his official report announcing the fall of Fort Pillow he wrote—

"We busted the Fort at nine o'clock and scattered the niggers. The men is still a cillanem in the woods."

And in accounting for those who were made prisoners in the Fort he said—

"Them as we cotch with spoons and breastpins and sich was cilled and the rest of the lot was payrold and told to git."

Withal, NATHAN BEDFORD FORREST was one of the bravest, ablest and most resourceful of the vast multitude of American soldiers developed on both sides during the Civil War. He was born in Bedford county, Tenn., July 13th, 1821, and died in Memphis October 29th, 1877.

THE City Council of Elizabethtown will cut the number of saloons in half by raising the license from $500 to $1,000 a year.

RUSSIA says the first move for peace must be made by Japan, or it will be a "fight to the finish." Field Marshal OYAMA seems to be of the same opinion, and quite willing to put on the finishing touches.

I HAVE been charged with the awful crime of "devoting a great deal of space to the defense of the Beef Trust." Yes; THE LEDGER reproduced a part of the Government's official report of the investigation into Beef Trust methods, showing that the Trust was not quite as black as the demagogues had painted it. The "defense" was written by Mr. GARFIELD, Secretary of Commerce and Labor; but my shoulders are broad and I can stand for it.

Political Pickings

FAILED TO GET THE GRAFT.

Louisville Courier-Journal.

The United States Senate, in killing the little scheme of a majority of the House of Representatives to take $190,000 out of the Treasury to pay themselves expenses of travel which they never incurred, at a "recess" which never existed, has hung up those gentlemen to the public gaze in a decidedly unenviable light.

The pretext on which they sought thus to help themselves out of the public funds was so transparent that they could not have expected it to deceive any one. It was merely the constructive recess of Congress supposed to exist between the extra session ending at 12 o'clock one day and the regular session beginning at 12 o'clock the same day. The law allows the members mileage for the purpose of paying their expenses between their homes and Washington, and this mileage is still fixed at the rates deemed expedient in the old days when there were no railroads. As the members were already in Washington at this fictitious "recess," having collected their mileage in getting there, and as they could not, if they wished, go back and forth between Washington and their homes during the recess extending from 12 o'clock noon of one day to 12 o'clock noon of the same day, the quality of effrontery that enabled them to vote themselves mileage for such a recess is evident.

Messrs. I. M. Lane and John Walsh visited the bedside of the late Mrs. Emily Dobyns a few days before she died. Though nearing the end she recognized both gentlemen with a smile.

Presiding Elder F. W. Harrop, delivered a most excellent address to men in the Court-house yesterday. One of the Elder's enthusiastic admirers declared it was the finest talk ever heard in the city.

CARD OF THANKS.

SOCIAL EVENTS

One of the swellest affairs of the season was the banquet given by Alderman Andy Clooney Saturday night in honor of his whilom friend, Larry Langefels.

Mr. Clooney is keeping Bachelor Hall, his wife being on a visit to friends in New Richmond, O., and the occasion being opportune, his cozy home for the nonce was turned into a banquet hall, where mirth, levity and good cheer reigned supreme.

It was a seven course affair and the menu ran from turkey to Boston baked beans, with et cetera as side dishes, washed down with four dozen Budweiser, several bottles of Lime- stone and topped off with the finest Havana.

No occasion is complete without the presence of Colonel Tom Slattery, and in this instance he was toastmaster and after dinner talker of the evening.

Jim Cummings, being perfectly at home with knife and fork, performed the duties of carver, and the way that turkey was cut up would make a Japanese cry with envy.

Roe Beckett said grace and Will Smith and Tom Lalley were too full to say anything—of turkey of course.

It was exclusively a stag affair and to those present one of the most enjoyable evenings of their life.

The hours passed only too soon and at the breakup Andy was voted the handsomest man present as well as a royal entertainer and a jolly good fellow.

"There Isn't One Really Good Printer in Five Hundred."

Printers' Ink—the leading journal on publicity of all kinds—has the following to say: "There are thousands of printers in this country, good, indifferent, and a lot of bad ones. There isn't one really good printer in five hundred. Intelligent advertisers are willing to pay for good printing, no matter where it comes from."

Printers' Ink knows what it is talking about. Poor printing is a bad investment—it's worse than a blank. A business man's stationery or booklet is like a traveling man—if it's neat, well-dressed and to the point, the first impression is good and your chances of doing business on the strength of it are good.

We realize this. We keep abreast of the times. We know what good printing is and produce it. We are pretty careful not to let a bum job get onto our presses. No press in the country can better our printing and we want you to know it.

FREE CORN FOR SEED.

On Monday, April 3d, 1905, County Court Day, I will give to the farmers of Kentucky and Ohio, whose farms are located outside of Maysville ten ears of seed corn, a part of the corn that was exhibited at the Tobacco Fair, February 22d, 1905. In order to get this corn it will be necessary for you to cut this advertisement out, and write your name and address in the blank space below arranged for that purpose, bring to my office, No. 215 Court street, any time after nine o'clock of that day. Those who come first will be sure to be accommodated. This is said to be the finest lot of corn ever exhibited. Don't ask for more than ten ears because you will be refused. This is sufficient to give you a fine start for seed corn next year. Remember, you can get either white or yellow as long as the supply lasts. No conditions are imposed upon you, but every farmer is requested to make preparation for an exhibit of corn, wheat, potatoes and tobacco at the Fair which will be held next February.

"SAME OLD JIM!"

What Makes Our Late Congressman So Universally Popular

Grayson Tribune.

It is now citizen James Kehoe. The writer met him a few minutes after he had divested himself of Congressional raiment, and before we knew he was about he rushed up to the box we stood on viewing the parade and with his usual geniality grabbed our hand and said, "How're you, John?" The same old Jim. And this is what makes him hard to beat. We cannot agree politically, but socially Jim Kehoe is all right, and he has been one of the hardest workers for his District that there has been in any Congress. We wish him unlimited prosperity in his new profession as Cashier of a prominent Maysville Bank.

Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick was convicted at Cleveland on seven counts of conspiracy to defraud the United States by conspiring to procure the certification of checks on a National Bank where there were no funds in the Bank to her credit. The extreme penalty fixed by law is a fine of $10,000 or imprisonment for not more than two years on each count.

The dispatches received at St. Petersburg indicate that General Kuropatkin has saved himself from the trap set for him by Field Marshal Oyama. He is falling back slowly with the main portion of his forces intact, and fighting a rear guard action. Saturday afternoon he was fifteen miles from Tie Pass, but whether any of the units of his army were cut off or captured is not definitely known. The press dispatches say that the Japanese separated the First and Fourth Russian corps and the inference is that they either were killed or captured, as the censor allowed no further reference to their fate. The losses have been enormous on both sides and are roughly estimated at 200,000. An unofficial report from St. Petersburg says Kuropatkin has lost 60,000 prisoners. The confidence of the Japanese is indicated in a statement by Field Marshal Oyama that his forces will pursue the Russians to Harbin. An element of possible danger to Kuropatkin is the army of General Kamamura, which is supposed to be somewhere on the line of his retreat to the North. Its location, however, is not definitely known.

Champion Lintment For Rheumatism.
Charles Drake, a Mail Carrier at Chapinville, Conn., says: "Chamberlain's Pain Balm is the champion of all liniments. The past year I was troubled a great deal with rheumatism in my shoulder. After trying several cures the storekeeper here recommended this remedy, and it completely cured me." There is no use of anyone suffering from that painful ailment when this liniment can be obtained for a small sum. A Chicago Alderman Oves His Election to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Shenick, 220 South Peoria street, Chicago. "Two years ago, during a political campaign, I caught cold after being overheated, which irritated my throat, and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak loud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe in senses when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several doses that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the Council." This remedy is for sale by all Druggists.

SPRINGDALE.

Mrs. Jack Cobb is on a visit to her folks at Rome, O.
Mr. William Reinheart of Lewis county was here Friday.
Constable Chisholm and Mr. L. F. Pigg were here from Maysville Tuesday.
"Within the past twenty-five years Mason county has built a new Jail and gotten free-pikes—but what else?" Bless your soul this conundrum is easy. Haven't we got our elegant bloodhounds?
Our popular young mail carrier, Mr. Tom Goodwin, has rented and will soon move into the Mitchell cottage—lately vacated by Mr. L. Burt. We are glad to welcome Mr. Goodwin and his charming bride, nee Miss Amy Howard Bryant of Maysville, as citizens of our town.
Mr. Will Carr and Miss Olive Hampton will be married at the home of the resident Minister here next Wednesday. Both young people are members of Lewis county's best families. It will be the second marriage of the groom. His first wife was Miss Callie George, a well known young school teacher, whose death was mourned by many friends. The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. T. J. Hampton and a grand-daughter of the late Esq. Alexander McKenzie. She too is a prominent and popular young teacher.

The storehouse of Mr. John Otto was robbed Thursday night between dark and 8 o'clock. Some 25 or 30 gallons of lard were taken. The bloodhounds appeared upon the scene about 11 o'clock Friday a. m. One trail was taken to a point about a mile East in the woods of Mr. Hulda Fettes where they were called off and another trail leading West is being followed at this writing. Mr. Otto has the sympathy of his neighbors and has already declined one offer of a drawing of lard for the next batch of biscuit. The bloodhounds were supposed to be tracking the thieves towards Maysville, when near the home of Mr. Soister, at the old rock quarry, they left the railroad track, going Southwest up the hollow and soon encountered a gang of other dogs, and the charm was off. One of our citizens who was keeping up with the hounds then turned back, the man hunters coming with him meeting the man in charge a mile in the rear, and who had pocketed Mr. Otto's hard cash, who immediately whistled the dogs in, and departed. If the dogs were trailing the thief why was the pursuit abandoned? Will some one explain why a taxpayer has to put up so liberally for the use of his own dogs? Hadn't we better sell our beloved dogs? Those relics of slavery days.

TWO OPEN LETTERS

IMPORTANT TO MARRIED WOMEN

Mrs. Mary Dimmick of Washington tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well.

It is with great pleasure we publish the following letters, as they convincingly prove the claim we have so many times made in our columns that Mrs.

Mrs. Mary Dimmick

Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., is fully qualified to give helpful advice to sick women. Read Mrs. Dimmick's letters.
Her first letter:
Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"I have been a sufferer for the past eight years with a trouble which first originated from painful menstruation—the pains were excruciating, with inflammation and ulceration of the womb. The doctor says I must have an operation or I cannot live. I do not want to submit to an operation if I can possibly avoid it. Please help me."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, Washington, D. C.
Her second letter:
Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"You will remember my condition when I last wrote you, and that the doctor said I must have an operation or I could not live. I received your kind letter and followed your advice very carefully and am now entirely well. As my case was so serious it seems a miracle that I am cured. I know that I owe not only my health but my life to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and to your advice. I can walk miles without an ache or a pain, and I wish every suffering woman would read this letter and realize what you can do for them."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 59th and East Capitol Streets, Washington, D. C.
How easy it was for Mrs. Dimmick to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and how little it cost her—a two-cent stamp. Yet how valuable was the reply! As Mrs. Dimmick says—it saved her life. Mrs. Pinkham has on file thousands of just such letters as the above, and offers ailing women helpful advice.

HOW IT STICKS.

Maysville Has Found It Hard To Shake Off.

Hard to bear, harder to get rid of, Is any itching skin complaint, Eczema or Itching Piles. Doan's Ointment relieves and cures All itchiness of the skin. Maysville people endorse this statement: Mrs. Kate Poth, living at the corner of Clark St. and Forest Ave., Maysville, Ky., says: "I gave a statement about Doan's Ointment which was published in our Maysville papers. I said that I had received most decided benefit from the use of this remedy, procured at J. Jas. Wood and Son's drug store. For a long time I had an itching oozing eczema of the scalp. It broke out in spots and sometimes the spots would appear on my forehead and temples. The itching was particularly troublesome just before a rain and was then so intense that I could not sleep at night. It required only a short use of Doan's Ointment to cure the trouble, and the cure has been lasting for the past five years. There has never been even an indication of a recurrence. A friend of mine also had eczema and tried everything for it but never found anything to remove the annoyance. On my recommendation she used Doan's Ointment, and was absolutely cured."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitute.
